The color of our lives.

It's in the bright sunshine streaming through our bedroom window as we awake early, early, early every weekday morning and trudge off to classes (especially zero period).

It's in the faces of our friends, a diverse group of smiles and frowns and question marks.

It's in our sports teams (Go Big Red!)

And in our textbooks and chromebooks and worksheets and spreadsheets.

In our powerpoints and our power plays and in our drama (and choir and band) and all that jazz.

It's in our families (at home and at school).

It's in our successes. It's in our failures. It's in our blood.

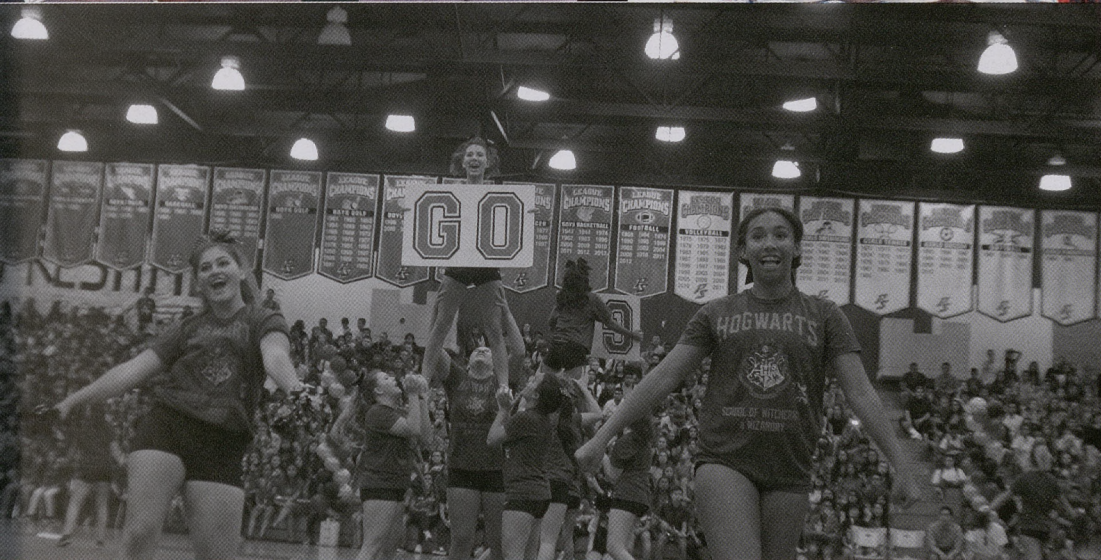

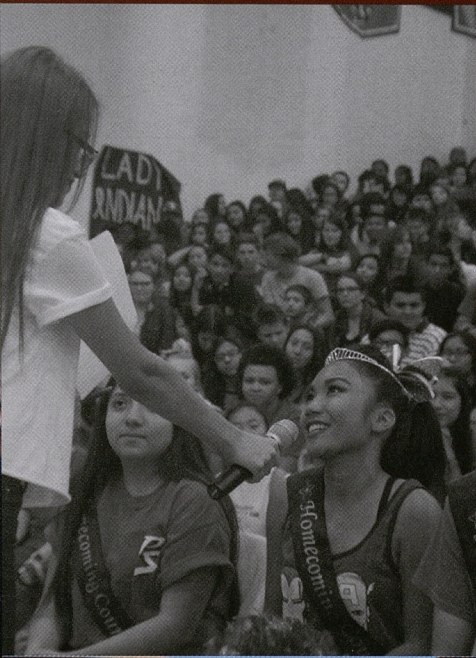

The color of our lives.

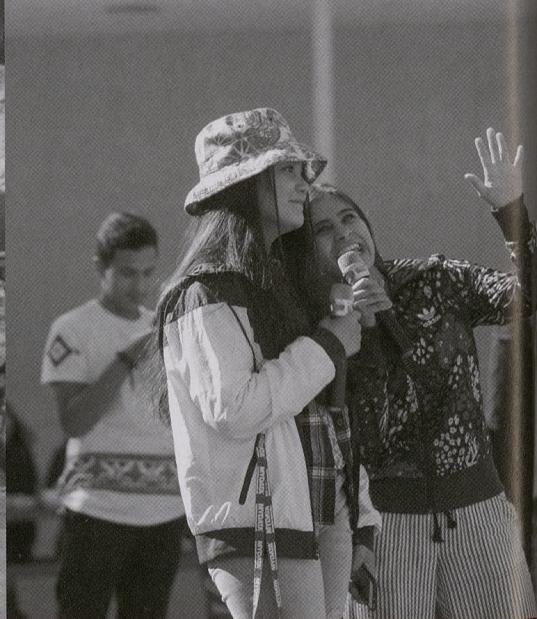

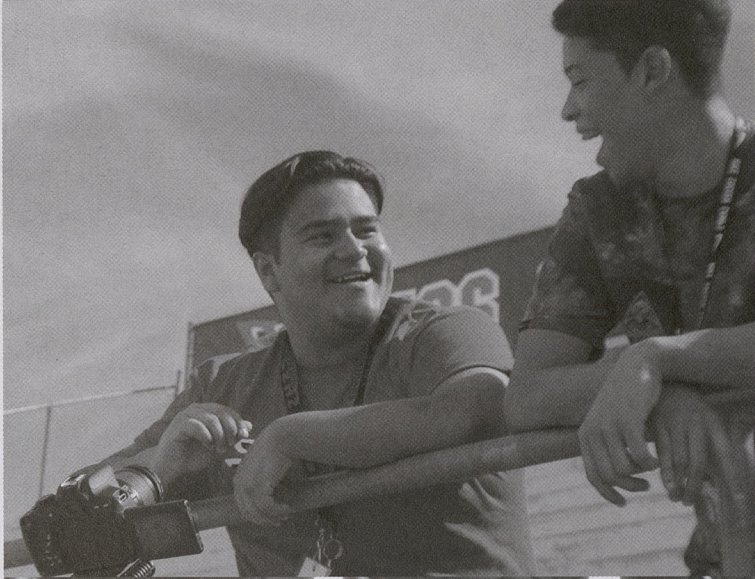

High School.

Palm Springs High School...

What color was it for you?

Homecoming Parade

1.

1. The DSHS Varsity Football Team rides with the cheerleaders down Palm Canyon Drive on another perfect Fall day in Palm Springs.

2. The Theatre Company ensemble.

3. Erica Duggins (12) rides in one of the Homecoming Parade cars, a 2016 Corvette.

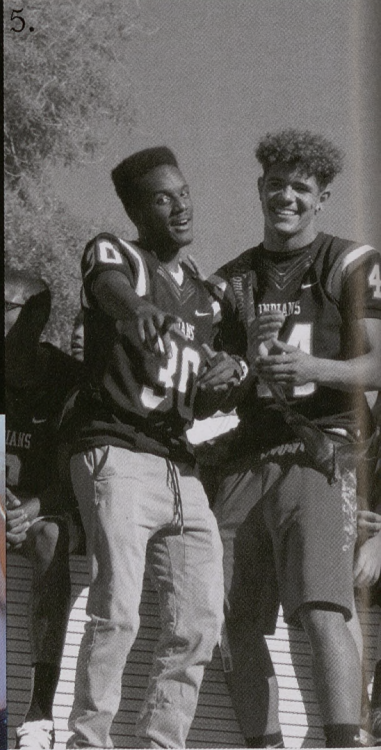

4. Jaiden Wilkinson (11), Carlos Pizarro (11), and Jeovany Marquez (11) of ROTC

5. Dominack Murray (12) and Andrew Clark (12) celebrate atop the football float.

2.

5.

It was another picture-perfect Homecoming Parade for Palm Springs High, as the the October sun shone brightly on one of the most decorated (and attended) events in recent memory.

Palm Canyon Drive was lined with nearly 2,000 locals and tourists as the hour-long parade passed by the city's iconic "Village District".

This year's theme was "Super Heroes", and the many floats were decked with characters from Spiderman to Captain America. As usual, the football team won its HOCO Game later that week, beating rival Cathedral City 21-14 in a key DVL match. HOCO King Damion Lee (12) and Queen Dallana Jimenez (12) were also crowned that night.

1. Callie Burns (12), HOCO Princess.
2. Zachary Russell (12) and Zac Costello (11) mug for camera.

3. Jayden Thomas (12) poses for a quick shot while sitting on the Senior float.

4. Belen Pena (12), Garo Mazmanian (12), Amethyst Haines (12), Maricela Sandoval (12) and Ashley Kennedy (12).

5. Daphnne Ruvalcalba (11) on the Folklorico float.

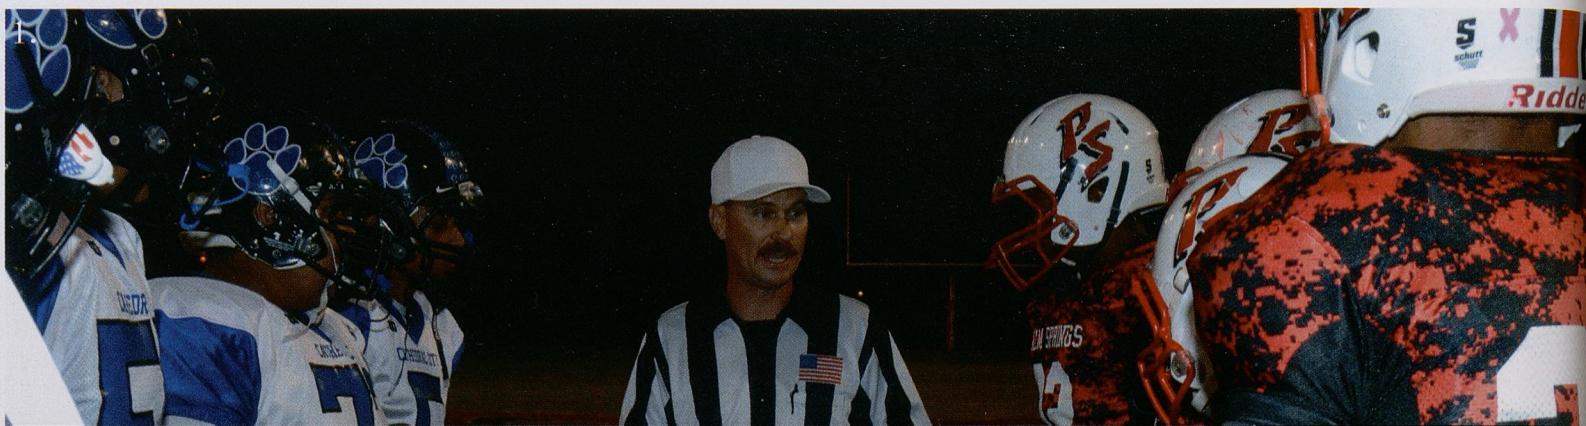

6. The Palm Academy float.

7. The ASB Juniors, captain.

9. The ASB Sophomores having fun.
10. Evelyn Ascencio (11) smiles for crowd.
11. Dallana Jimenez (12), HOCO Princess.
12. Spanish Honor Society leads the Folklorico dancers.
13. Aeron Lapuz (10), Jordan Ramos (12), Isaiah Fernandez (12), and Romul Pasqual (12) waiting for the fun to begin.

1. The PSHS football team prepares to face off against our rival CC.

2. Karelis Canas (12), Vanessa Ledezma (12) and Maricela Sandoval (12) parading.

3. A grand performance at the annual Halftime Show.

4. Spiderman and The Hulk wave to the crowd.

5. The Dance Team hypes up the Red Zone.

6. Isiah Olvera (12) is in on the tackle.

7. The Red Zone roots for their home team.

8. ASB Juniors beam winning smiles as they show off their float.

9. Theatre performs the Halftime Show.

10. Dallana Jimenez (12) smiles as she's crowned Homecoming Queen.

11. All the Homecoming Princesses pose for a picture after being crowned.

10.

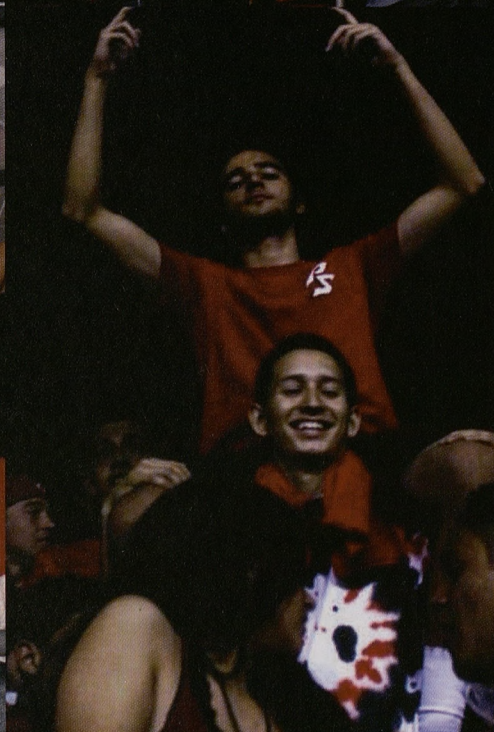

It was a "super" night, and week for that matter. The Annual PSHS Homecoming was capped off on Saturday night with a predictable 21-14 victory over rival CC High. The Halftime Show was "villainous" and the crowning of the Queen "charming".

Homecoming Rivalry Game

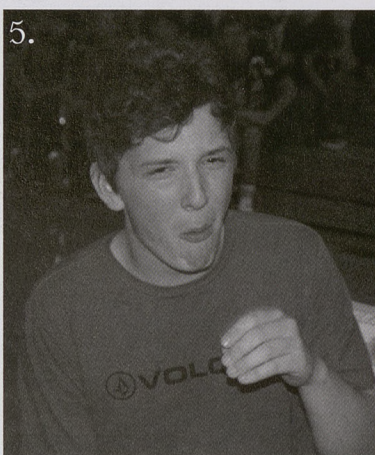

11.

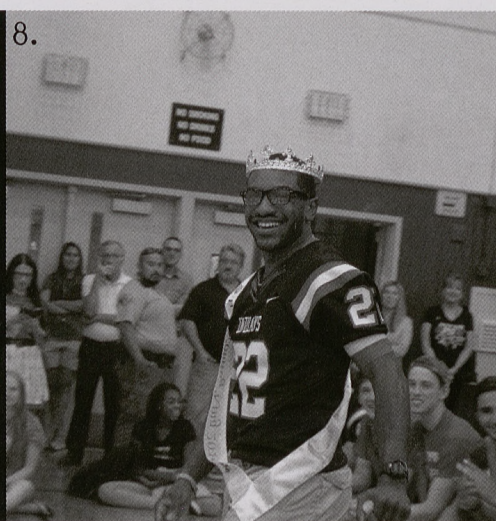

1. The Blackout Rally.
2. Hannah Wright (12) and Callie Burns (12).
3. Maricela Sandoval (12) says "yes" to Hector Romo (12).
4. Adam Ailabouni (12) and Hayden Poulain (12).

5. Emerson Noble (12).
6. The Cheer Team.
7. Jack Weaver (11) has fun during a game at the Blackout Rally.

Roxlies

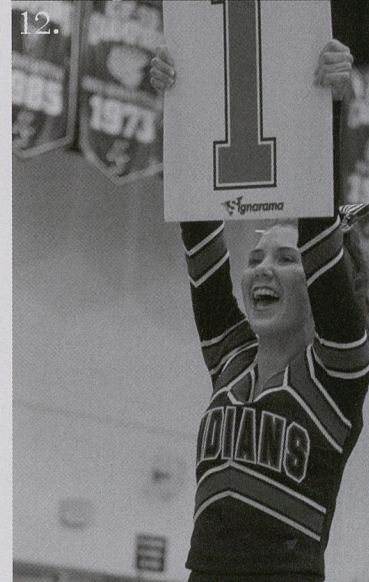

9. The Homecoming princes alongside their parents.

10. The Dance Team goes all-white for Blackout Rally.

11. Erin Martinez (11) and Jievin Martinez (12) play the alto saxophones.

12. Kaley Doherty (11) says Indians are #1.

13. Dedrick Jones (12) of the Dance Team shows off his break dancing moves.

LIZANDRO RAMIREZ: Quirky. Funky. Inspired by his older brother. "I shop at Kohl's or TJ Maxx," he said. "Style is whatever you want to make it."

ALIJAH MCGRAIL: Inspired by a flower. Cozy. Shops at thrift stores. "I like to design my own clothes," he said. "I cut them and make them match to how I feel for that day."

KOBE MERCHANT: The expression of himself. ASAP rocky. No categories. "I branched off to my own thing," he said, "and now whatever I see fits pretty much goes on my body."

LIZBETH CHAVEZ: Simple and comfortable. Cute. Hippie. "I'm really inspired by boho," she said. "I dont have a specific type of style; whatever that I'm feeling that day."

ARIELLA KOUHANIM: Very in. Instagram. Famous models. "I get inspiration from Kylie Jenner and also incorporate my own style. I can't live without Mesh Top."

STEEVEE CAULDER: Amiyah Scott. Classic Chic. Funky. "I get my inspiration from many places," she said, "because I always like to keep people guessing."

Matt Castillo (12) aka "Matt Cuttz" is the school's resident barber. Determined, creative, and dedicated to the art of a good haircut, he has made a name for himself at PSHS.

"I'm going to Champion Beauty School," said Castillo. "and I've been cutting hair for four years. I love doing it."

The school will surely be all "cut-up" when he leaves us.

Dedrick Jones (12) is a dancer on the school's award-winning Dance Team and iLLusionists. He specializes in hip-hop and choreography. "I started when I was a freshman and always had an interest in dance," said Jones. "I also found inspiration in 'Animazing Crew'". The PSHS Team consists of Jones, Romel Pascua (12), Isaiah Fernandez (12), Jordan Ramos (11), Andrew Carrera (10), Elmer Lusung (10), and Aeron Lapuz (10). This is the first generation all-male dance team in the school's history, and Jones was the force behind it.

Alijah McGrail (12) is a BMX rider who freestyles up and down the streets of Palm Springs.

He's been riding for three years, and owns a Cult BMX he bought at King's Ride Shop in Palm Desert. "Riding is an expression of myself," said McGrail. "I like riding ledges and spots I can find on the streets that no one else will ride."

His favorite trick is a kick-flip, where he spins his cranks while in the air.

Outside of School

Blaze Bautista (11) is a multi-talented student who is known as much for her artwork as her voice. She played one of the leads in the Spring Musical "Annie", and was able to showcase her voice in four solos.

"I enjoy participating in our musicals because of the union of visual and performing arts," she said.

"Playing the piano and singing allows me to express the emotions I feel behind the song. That's important to me."

Ivan Atanassov (12) is a pilot in his spare time, flying a Cessna 172 from Bermuda Dunes Airport. Said Atanassov: "I picked up flying one day after I'd gone up and realized this was really something special." He plans on getting his private pilot's license soon and see where it goes from there.

Darius Patrick (10) and Maxine Lubrico (12) are best friends who enjoy creating art together. Maxine specializes in print-making, which is the creation of multi-media designs using a press.

"I want to express my concerns for current socio-economic issues through my art," said Lubrico. "I feel art is a way to reach my peers without hitting them over the head with my opinions."

Patrick works with line drawings and sketches, using pen and ink. His work focuses on character portraits of students on campus.

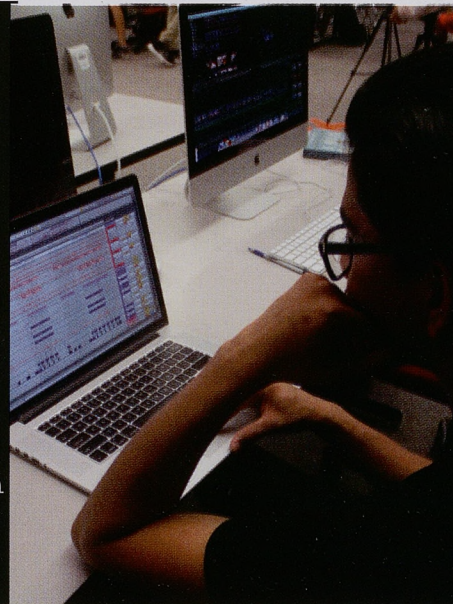

"I've been drawing since I was very young," said Patrick. "It helps calm me down and maybe brightens someone's day, too."

Kobe Merchant (12), Adrian Puentes (12), and Ian Eager (12) framed up the year with creative photos, films, and artwork.

Said Merchant: "Working with Ian is really fun because it gives me a chance to bring my imagination to life. We really bounce ideas off each other in a dynamic way."

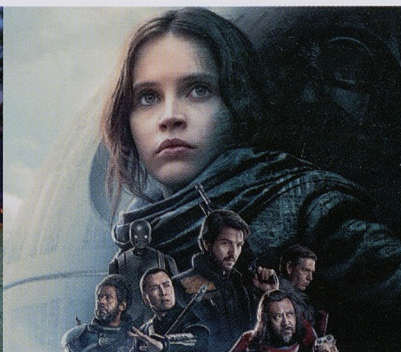

Puentes was the INN camera man this year, while Eager did all of the background photography.

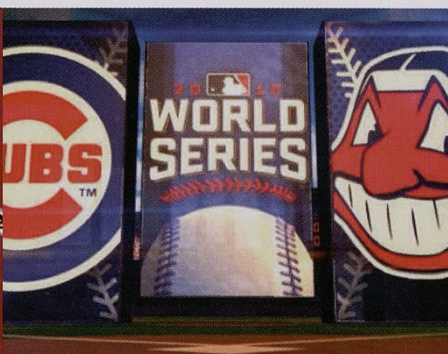

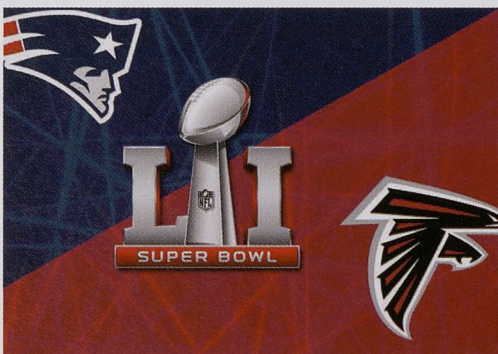

Alexis Lavariega (12) is an aspiring artist in the field of music. He produces "music that feels right" from "my imagination to my computer."

Lavariega started as a freshman and has a particular love for the dance music and R&B genres.

The Year 2016-17 at PSHS...

It wasn't your typical year at Palm Springs High School, and all of the faces you see to the right are the reasons why.

We experimented (literally and figuratively), learned new languages, solved new equations (in both class and in relationships), stayed more connected to our social media than the real media, and had something in our ears at all times.

We traveled to NYC, hosted Slovenians, sang about "Tomorrow", opened a new auditorium and called it "Richards", beat Cathedral City in everything, and put the formal in both Winter and Prom.

Overall, it was a pretty good year, if we do say so ourselves. Just check the faces...

...and in The World

We got a new President with an itchy Twitter finger, fake news, women protesting, bathrooms no longer just for resting, historical comebacks in sports, and a general change in the atmosphere (climate and relational). From Brexit to Dilma, the Cavs and the Cubs, people came back from the dead (and they weren't the walking kind). Some might have felt they were living in "La La Land".

Here's some highlights:

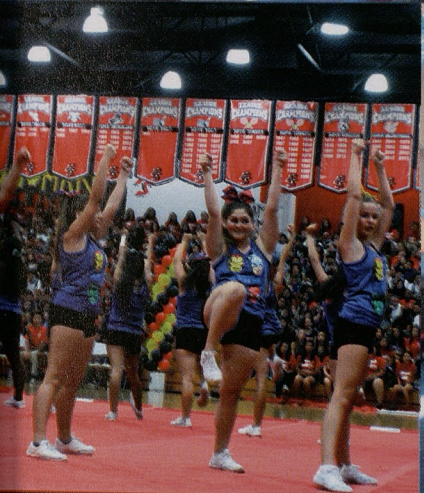

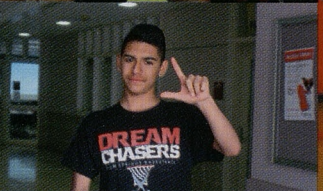

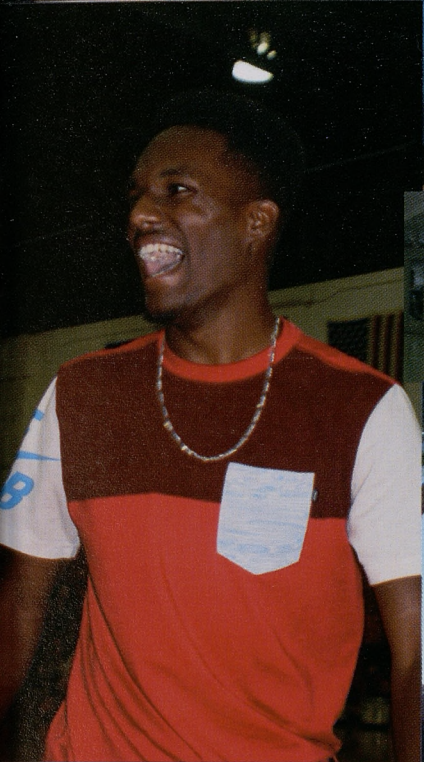

Presidential Election: Billionaire Donald Trump defeats former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton.

Best Picture: "Moonlight", directed by Barry Jenkins and starring Mahershala Ali.

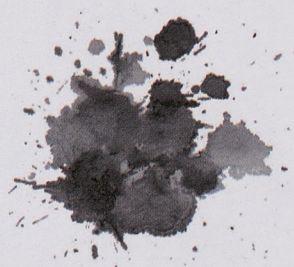

Best Song: "25" by Adele, including song of the year "Hello".

Top Video Game: "Mass Effect: Andromeda".

History

11.

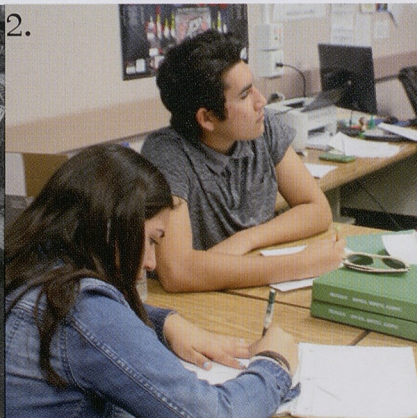

The Palm Springs High School History Department, chaired by Mrs. Sepulveda, offers courses in U.S. and World History, in addition to Civics.

The focus of each class is not simply on facts, figures, and dates, but rather on the "why" of historical events. Students delve into projects designed to produce critical thinking, including role-playing, original source documents, and what-if scenarios.

In a year when the Presidential election was won by Donald Trump, discussions and debates were lively.

The Language Acquisition Department, chaired by Latin Instructor Svetlana Lazarova, has been an important core program at Palm Springs High School for many years. Offering Spanish, French, and Latin courses, the department prepares students for an ever diverse world view. The languages don't focus simply on verb tenses and concrete nouns (or a way to navigate through a foreign country) but the very culture and peoples who inhabit that language. The genesis of where it all began.

The Associated Student Body at PSHS, facilitated by Mr. Brown, had another stellar year making the school burst with pride. From the Academic Rally in August to the Urban Rally in March, ASB never lost its energy and focus.

"Our goal this year was to include every club, sport, academy, and pretty much every person on this campus," said Callie Burns (12) Senior Class President. "We wanted everyone to feel represented."

Highlights of the year included Homecoming Week (Parade, Rally, Game, and Saturday night dance at the Hard Rock Hotel). The Winter Formal was held at the PS Aerial Tramway. And Prom was at the Convention Center.

"I hope we left ASB stronger than its ever been," said Burns.

Business Academy + PALM

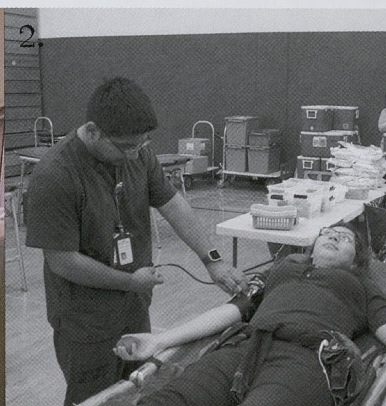

The Business Academy at Palm Springs High School had a transitional year, as Ms. Hissam took over the program. The students traveled to San Diego, San Francisco, and New York to compete.

Said Robert Green (12): "We moved from coffee to sunglasses and it made the year special."

Said Annie Mascaro (12), team captain: "We were composed of some very talented swimmers this year and I was proud of each and every one of them." The Indians were led by Christian Meyer (11), Annie Mascaro (12), Alexandra Salinas (11), Xanthe Meeks (12), Cody Meyer (9), and Linden Conrad-Marut (12). Said Feo: "I've never seen such a tight-knit group as the swimmers this year. It was a joy to coach them and encourage them to do their very best. We all had a lot of fun out there on the deck."

The Palm Springs High School Golf Team beat Indio but lost to Xavier and Palm Desert in early season matches as the Yearbook went to press.

The team this year was completely new from the year before, and had several beginners to the game.

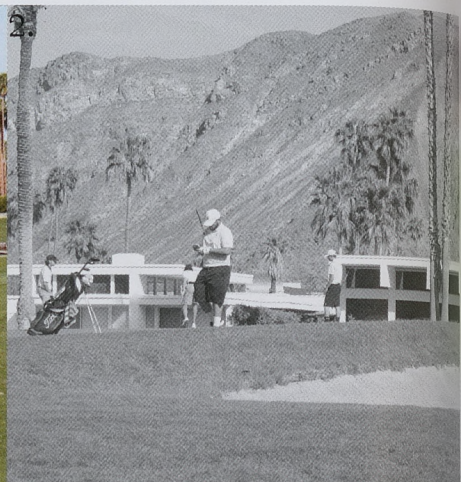

Said Adam Rehayel Ailabouni (11): "We have been very competitive despite the inexperience.

"We've tried to simply lower our individual scores each tournament, but win or lose we've stayed positive and that makes it really fun out there."

INN and Yearbook were both produced in Room 607, a controlled chaos of music, editing, fighting, screaming, and wonderful moments of creativity. Hiding under his desk most days, Mr. Kauffman supervised the madness--both on and off camera. Producing a daily show 150+ times per year took extreme dedication and professionalism on the parts of all the on-air talent, not to mention the grace and patience of the behind-the-scenes people. On the Yearbook side, it felt like a marathon run in 50 meter sprints. Ultimately, what most will remember 20 years from now are these words: "Quiet on the set!" (Thank you, Door Man).

Dear Garo,
Ever since you were a little boy, you have filled our lives with joy and laughter with all of your silly jokes. You have yet to outgrow that, but it's okay, we still love you. We are so proud of the smart and kind young man you have become. We can't wait to see where you go on your journey in college. Remember, the most important thing is the love in your heart. You will always be our star child (sorry Alexandra and Nancy).

-Love always, Your Family

Andrew,

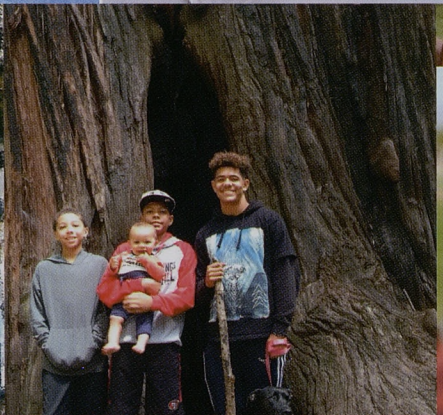

I feel like I closed my eyes and you became a young man. Words cannot express how proud I am of you. You are kind, loving, funny, smart, and caring; really the list could go on. Always remember things happen for a reason, and we learn so much from all these life lessons. Listen to your heart, believe in yourself, forgive others, always find a reason to laugh, and never settle for less.

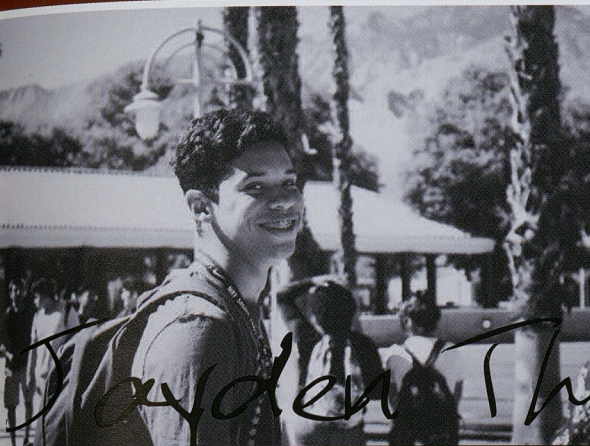

With everything you do in life, my love will always be there with you. You are everything to me, my son.

You will always be my baby boy in my heart, but you are such an amazing young man.

Love,

Mommy

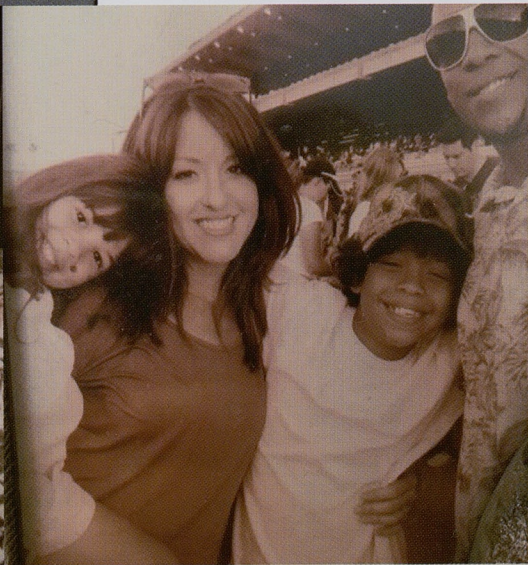

Jayden,

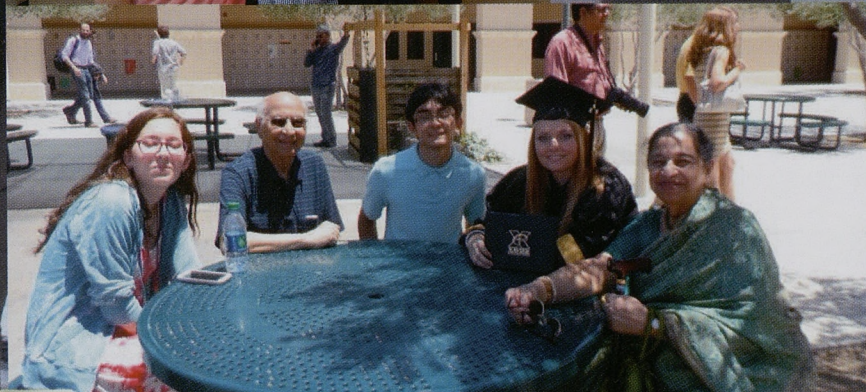

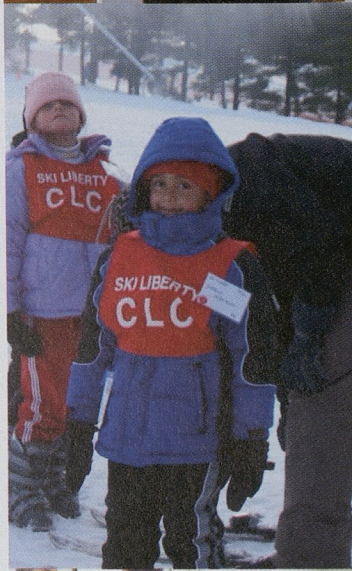

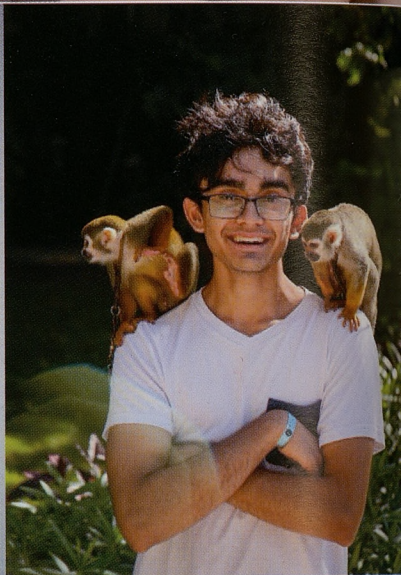

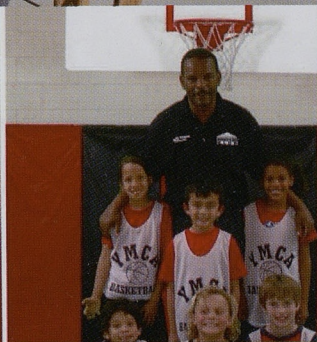

Where has the time gone? We blinked and you grew up! We are so very proud of the person you are and have always been. Every day you fill our hearts with so much joy and laughter! You always seem to make us proud every step you take, and we are so excited to see what the future holds for you! No matter where life leads you, no matter what you do, we will always be your biggest fans. We love you more than words can express, and know you are destined for greatness!

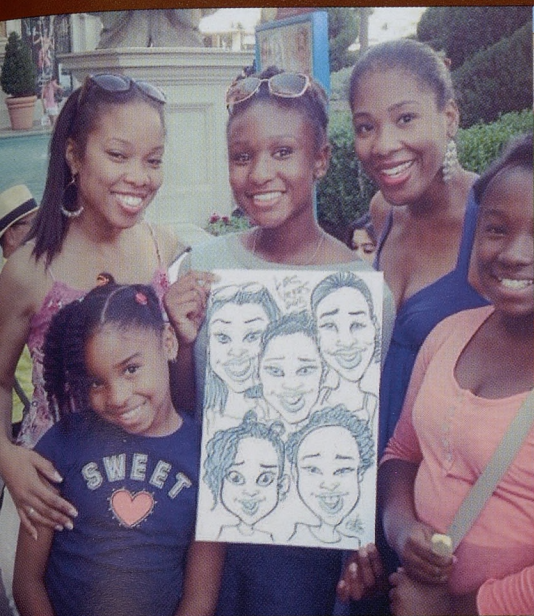

Love you DayDay, Jay man, Bubba!!!

Love you forever & always,
Mommy, Daddy and Kiley :)
& the rest of our family!

Daniela Ramirez

If I'm being honest, nothing has caused me more stress than this Yearbook (even more than AP classes). It has consumed whatever I have left of a social life. The only thing that has made this somewhat bearable is being able to work alongside my best friend Dani, and Kauffmanino, a grandfather figure. Although they constantly badgered my name, I couldn't have asked for a better team. Special thanks to the many people who made this Yearbook possible, especially Kobleazy Merchant and Abel. I look forward to what we will do next year. Enjoy!

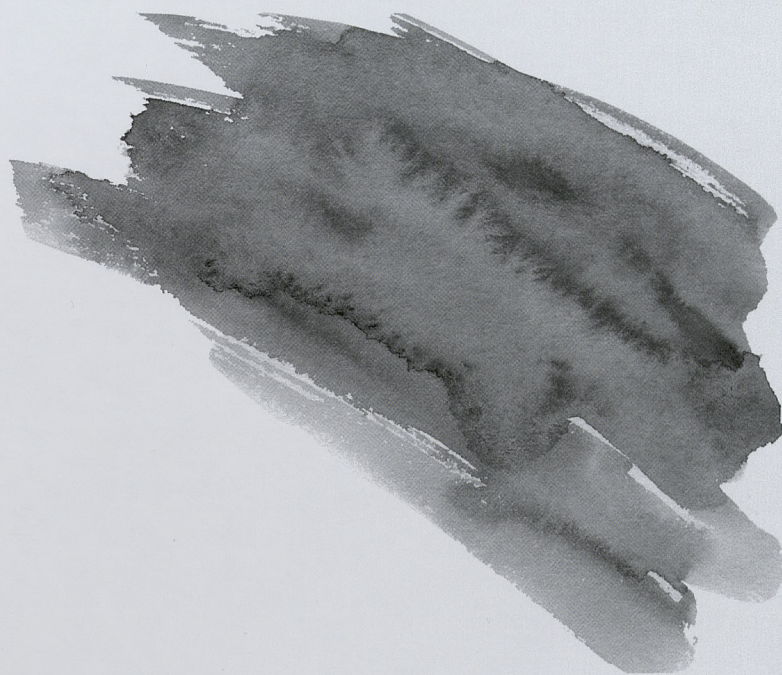

Being in Yearbook for three years now has been nothing but stressful. I have grown and learned so much and have gotten to learn about the diversity in the school. Working with my best friend Nancy by my side, bickering on what shade of red we should use. I am happy to be in Yearbook and I can't wait to see what next year is going to look like. Shout out to Kobe Merchant (12) for taking photos, Mr. Kauffman, whom I love and hate and never get enough of "Daniela, we need to do this..." and to Bryan Solano (12) for motivating me with "They don't want to see you winning."

I took my hands off Yearbook this year to such an extent that the words you are currently reading were written just before you turned the page (well, nearly). But it's done, and it was fun, and I wouldn't trade all the challenges and stress for six months of my feet up doing nothing (it was actually just five). Nancy Mazmanian (11) and Daniela Ramirez (11) are truly amazing people who came in on Saturdays and stayed late weekdays and might've even missed a class or two (excused, of course). Any mistakes you find were unintentional. A labor of love, please handle with care.
